Around the World in 80 Frameworks

(A Multidisciplinary/Differentiated Set of Ideas and Lessons)

Grades 2 - 8

Dates: January 13, 2011
Location: General John A. Logan School
320 Watson Rd., Murphysboro, IL
Fee: $ 35.00
Time: Registration - 8:30 AM, Workshop 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM
Registration Deadline: January 10, 2011
Workshop Limited to 32 Participants

We'll take a journey to learn about the Immigration of Germans to Southern Illinois, their contributions to US and World traditions, and finish by exploring websites and hands-on art activities. All of that before lunch!

Participants continue after lunch with Heifer International. We'll travel the world and demonstrate educational activities that you can use with your students. The Read to Feed program will be introduced and opportunities with SIUC International students and E-pals will be explored. Get your passport ready!

Lunch and materials provided. You will go back to school ready to tour the world.

If you have any questions, contact Shari Biggs at (618) 687-7290 or email sbiggs@roe30.org
