

Position Title: Mary Logan High School, Social Studies Instructor Position

Type of Position: Part-time

Hiring Department: Mary Logan High School

Starting Salary: $21.00 per contact hour

Deadline to Apply: open until filled

Projected Starting Date: January 4, 2023

Hours: Monday – Friday, 2-4 hours during the school day

Duties and Responsibilities:

Responsible for the daily instruction of high school social studies courses to include United States History, World History, and U.S. Government & Civics. To monitor and report daily student attendance and academic progress. The ability to establish rapport with students, families, and staff. Organizational and classroom management skills are required. The ability to enforce and uphold the philosophies and expectations of MLHS. Classes meet during the 8:15 A.M. – 3:30 P.M. school day, in two-hour sessions. Some evenings (PT Conferences) may be required.

Required Minimum Qualifications:

Bachelor's degree.

Preferred Qualifications:

Seeking applicants motivated to work with non-traditional high school students to assist in retention and diploma completion.